#1 REP. SWALWELL RUNS FOR GOVERNOR

Rep. Swalwell (D-CA) announced he will run for governor of California. He joins a crowded field of Democratic primary candidates - several of whom are considered high profile, including Rep. Porter (D-CA) and former HHS Secretary Xavier Bacerra. Rep. Swalwell has served in Congress since 2013 and won his seat by defeating a longtime incumbent Member of Congress.

“ Our state, this great state, needs a fighter and protector. Someone who will bring prices down, lift wages up. ”

- Rep. Swalwell (D-CA):

#2 MARJORIE TAYLOR GREEN ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION

Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene (R-GA) announced she will resign her seat in January after an unexpected back-and-forth with President Trump, whom she has long supported. Rep. Green unexpectedly emerged with some fairly moderate positions during the shutdown (including siding with Democrats on some healthcare issues and pushing for the release of the Epstein files).

“ The most hurtful thing he said, which is absolutely untrue, is, he called me a traitor. ”

- Rep. Greene (R-GA)

#3 SURPRISE...MAMDANI AND TRUMP HAVE GOOD MEETING

New York City Mayor-Elect Zohran Mamdani met with President Trump in the Oval Office this week after a long campaign where both heavily criticized each other. To the surprise of most observers, the meeting was cordial and President Trump even noted that “some of his ideas really are the same ideas that I have.”
