#1 PRESIDENT SAYS IRAN DEAL ON THE HORIZON

President Trump announced that a deal was imminent with Iran to end the war and, therefore, he canceled plans for military strikes in Iran. Iranian officials have not yet indicated if they are aligned on an agreement at this point. The President indicated that a deal would quickly bring down gas prices and would ensure that Iran never has access to a nuclear weapon.

“ We ended the war with Iran. ”

#2 RECONCILIATION 2.0 SIGNED INTO LAW

The House and Senate Republicans passed a budget reconciliation to provide funding to Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and Border Patrol. This ends the funding lapse for the Department of Homeland Security.

“ We have to fund border security and immigration enforcement, and it's sad that Republicans have to do it on our own. ”

- Speaker Johnson (R-LA)

#3 PRESIDENT NOMINATES U.S. ATTORNEY AS DNI

President Trump has nominated Jay Clayton, the U.S. Attorney in Manhattan and former SEC Commissioner, to be the next Director of National Intelligence. This will fill the position that was open after Tulsi Gabbard announced she would be stepping down. The Senate will need to confirm Jay Clayton.
